Teacher Name	Class	Subject	Time	Period	Lesson	Topic
	IX	English	30 mins	2	The Adventures of Toto	LAQ

Expected Learning Outcome:

Learners will be able to :

- Describe grandfather's love for animals.
- Express their views on why Toto couldn't be kept as a pet animal.
- Analyse if humans have a right to captivate anyone's freedom.

Expected skill development:

Creativity, Reading, Listening, Thinking, Speaking & Communicative skills

TIME (in mins)	PEDAGOGY	CONTENT
5 mins	Warm-up Activity:	Two students (LOWs) will be called onto the board to draw a mind map stating reasons as to why they think that the Grandfather was a great lover of animals, while incorporating suggestions from the rest of the class.
20 mins	Discussion and assembly of value points and assignment of writing task	The teacher will facilitate students in writing answers to the proposed questions.
5 mins	Closure	2 LOW's and 1 ALS will read answers.

PROPOSED QUESTIONS: (To check their comprehension - Written work)

1. 'Toto was not good enough to be kept at home.' Do you agree with this statement? Why or why not?
2. Write your views in form of a short paragraph on the topic, 'Should animals be kept as pets?'

Evaluation/Assessment: Proposed Questions, Observation, Classroom Interaction and Web charts.

Learners on the way	Advanced Learners
• Mentioned above.	• Will be asked to give value points for the proposed questions.

Materials needed/Resources:

Blackboard, Textbook, Notebook.

Common Misconceptions/ anticipated problems:	Addressing the misconceptions/ anticipated problems:
Students might get confused why animals can't be kept as pets.	Each and every creature has right to live freely in its own habitat. But humans with passage of time have learnt to exploit animals for their own benefits.

Home Assignments: (Taking help from the class notes)

To complete writing task if any.
