

LESSON PLAN

DLF Public School

THE LEARNING ACADEMY

Managed By Darbari Lal Foundation

Teacher Name	Class	Subject	Time	Period	Lesson	Topic
	IX	English	30 mins	2	The Happy Prince	Recapitulating and Thematic comprehension

Expected Learning Outcome:

Learners will be able to :

- Recapitulate the parts of the story discussed in the previous class
- Comprehend the right way of reading a story and enunciate the words correctly with the help of the model reading.
- Research and use quotes related to compassion and happiness to enrich their answers.

Expected skill development:

Thinking skills, Listening skills, Speaking & Communicative skills, Writing skills

TIME (in mins)	PEDAGOGY	CONTENT
5	Warm-up Activity:	Recapitulation of the lesson done in the previous class through 3 R (Revoice, Restate and Reason)
20	Reading of the lesson	Model reading- pg 32-35 Comprehension questions will be asked to check students understanding (given below)
5	Closure Discussion	Think line: “If you want others to be happy, practice compassion. “

Proposed Questions:

Why did the swallow feel warm?

Describe the friendship between happy Prince and swallow

Why was ‘Happy Prince’ not really happy?

What was the last wish of the swallow?

What made the playwright happy?

When the prince was alive, he did not know what tears were. Why?

What did the angel consider ‘the two most precious things in the city’?

Evaluation/Assessment:

Class Observation, Classroom Interaction

Learners on the way

Advanced Learners

• Will be encourage to participate in the warm up activity	• Will actively participate in closure
Materials needed/Resources: Blackboard, Textbook, Dictionary
Common Misconceptions/ anticipated problems: Students might not understand Happy Prince's need to self-destruct in order to help others.	Addressing the misconceptions/ anticipated problems: Teacher Explanation Sacrificing oneself to provide happiness to others is also a part of being compassionate. But, remember- charity begins at home.
Home Assignments They will find and list quotes on compassion and happiness.	