

Period-2	Duration= 35 minutes
Sub Topic-The policies and the people(2) • The eighty four rules • Excitement in every regiment
Learning outcome(s):- • Students will be able to understand the feel of people after the execution of the British policies. They will be able to do comparative study of present Indian policy and old British policy.
Key Vocabulary • Regiment: A group of soldiers in the army who are commanded by a particular officer. • Cartridges: A small tube that contains explosive powder and a bullet • Cantonment: A military garrison or camp in the Indian subcontinent.
Skill Developed- Understanding, oral listening, Comparative skill
Opening set induction	Duration 5-6 minutes
Opening strategy :-Question-Answer/ Visual aids/ Explanation 1. What will you do if your friends calls you for his help? 2. How will see any of the revolution of a country. Since a long-time, we have seen that if something happens in country, it affects the whole crowd. Whether it is good or bad , people talk about those incidents. Now Tell me what will be the people thinking about the revolt & after that?
Link Statement:- Let us know about the various policies & their result on people. We will try to understand the mentality of the public & their reactions also.
Instructional methodology:-	Duration-15 to 20 min.
Teaching Strategy(ies):- Discuss / Explanation Explanation: • Nothing was happening special in the life of Indians. Some of the educated people started thinking something creative. They wrote some of the plays, stories, song etc. One of those writer was Vishnubhatt Godse who wrote about sepoys peasants during the time of revolt of 1857. He wrote that English were determined to swipe out all the Indians & their religion for this purpose they made some about 84 rules. He wrote that some kings did not accept the rules because it was not possible. • Already the process of war was in progress. All these things looks very tiny but their effect is grand. As the sepoy revolted it was a great incident in the Indian history. One of the soldier who got retirement, he wrote his memories in Awadhi. Somewhere in his writing, he explained that even simple soldier was also thinking to revolt because the British were not helping the Indian community of soldiers. They never fulfilled their promises with soldiers. They created the situation of mutiny & discontent of public. The British used their army power & performed their oppressive behavior. The British thought the upheaval of this revolt will be suspended itself.

Closure	Duration -5 to 6min.
Closure strategy:-Verification (Think and Answer) • What did Vishnubhatt Godse write about soldiers? • Who were not helping to the community of Indian soldiers?
Assignments: 1. Write a short note on Vishnubhatt Godse? 2. Write some lines about the great sepoy revolt of 1857? 3. What was the most important reason of anger of military?	