

TOPIC	Power Struggles and Movements
Pre-Requisite for the course	Knowledge of French and Russian Revolution
Assessment of qualifying knowledge	Formulation of project based on various struggles • Swadeshi Movement • Satyagraha • Purna Swaraj • Partition of Bengal • Revolt of 1857
Objectives	The students will be able to explore and write their views on :- • Instances led to power struggle • People use power of unity to struggle against various evils • Democracy evolves through popular struggle
Learning Outcomes	Knowledge:- Student will have knowledge about how struggles and movements lead by people and institution of nation comes together to make a pavement for their rights and voice Skills and Competencies:- Students will choose from various power struggle and explore the cause , effect and outcomes of the same. And bring out his creativity through PPT or a project file
Transaction Methodology	The lesson will be introduced by recalling the various power struggle, for eg French Revolution, Russian Revolution, how Hitler Rise to Power, what was the impact of these revolution, students learning on how people can mobilize and come together for single cause. Will ask students to create Project on specific guideline , will discuss both National as well as International power struggle.
Project completion	Project need to be submitted on any national or international power struggle