

Subject :Social Science

Class: X

Lesson 6:- Outcomes of Democracy

TOPIC	Outcomes of Democracy
Pre-Requisite for the course	Recapitulation of Democratic politics of class 9 th
Assessment of qualifying knowledge	Question based on Democracy, why is it better than other form of government
Objectives	The students will be able to explore and write their views on :- • to appreciate the importance of democratic government • recognize the importance of citizen's participation in decision making • accountability of government to the citizens • to inculcate the value of dignity and freedom of individuals in a democracy • comprehend the importance of accommodation of social diversity in a democracy
Learning Outcomes	Knowledge:- Student will have knowledge about the various outcomes of a democratic government, as how they are directly or indirectly accountable to the people. How democracy strengthen the claims of the disadvantaged and discriminated people. Skills and Competencies:- Students will understand as how democracy transforms people from the status of a subject into that of a citizen, they will value the power of vote, as it makes a difference to the way the government is run to their own self interest
Transaction Methodology	The lesson will be introduced with quotation "Democracy is a device that ensures we shall be governed no better than we deserve" George Bernard Shaw Recapitulating democratic politics from class 9th and developing the lesson thereafter. In this lesson we will help students to think about the definition of democracy and then consider how it might relate to the communities and culture in which we live and participate.
Questions Assessment	Q1 Why do we feel that democracy is a better form of government than any other form? Explain Q2. Why a democracy not considered simply a rule of majority? Q3. Should democracy be judged by its outcomes Q4 “In actual life, democracies do not appear to be very successful in reducing economic inequalities” Explain the statement giving an example. Q5 Democracy means delay in decision-making. “Which one in your view would be more preferable, quick decision of dictatorship or slow decision of democracy?”

--	---

SUMMARY –A FLOW CHART

