

Mystery of the Talking Fan

CLASS VII

- Literary Device
- Personification is a figure of speech where human qualities are given to non-living objects.
- Personification means representing a non-human thing as if it were human. It gives human traits and qualities, such as emotions, desires, sensations, gestures and speech to inanimate things.

SUMMARY

- The poem beautifully captures the movement of the much familiar and mundane objects around us, which in today's time are a very essential part of our existence. The poem discusses the movement of a ceiling fan. The poet discusses the sound made by the ceiling fan comparing it to human chatter, though unknown and incomprehensible.
- The poem opens up with the personification of the fan, been given human attribute such as the ability to talk and chatter. The poet calls their fans noise and electrical setup the poet is unable to comprehend what exactly it means and before the poet could succeed in decoding the mystery somebody told its motor ever since it function in such a smooth manner that no noise could be heard the talking fan felt silent.