

CIVICS CHAPTER-10

CLASS-7

STRUGGLES FOR EQUALITY

INTRODUCTION

- We have read about people like Kanta, the Ansaris, Melani and Swapna. The thread that connects all of these lives is that they have been treated unequally.
- What do people do when they face such inequalities? History is full of examples of persons who have come together to fight against inequality and for issues of justice.
- In this chapter you will learn about some of the ways in which people have struggled against inequality.

- the Indian Constitution recognises all Indians as equal before the law and states that no person can be discriminated against because of their religion, sex, caste or whether they are rich or poor.
- have read, the increasing privatisation of health services and the neglect of government hospitals have made it difficult for most poor people.
- Poverty and the lack of resources continue to be a key reason why so many people's lives in India are highly unequal.
