

Class - VIII

Subject- GEOGRAPHY

Lesson- 3— Mineral and power Resources

Activity- Map work

Time required – 40 minutes(approx)

Learning Outcome- Locate the different minerals on the map of India

What I have to do-: Locate the minerals on the political map of India.

Time required?- 1hr/ 60 mins

What do I need ?-: Map and colored sheets.

Type of activity-: Group activity

What I already know?- The location of various states of India.

Teacher's activity-

Preparedness-: Prepare five laminated A-3 size Indian political maps. Ask students to get two packets of colored bindis. A day before the activity the teacher will share conduct a session where she will emphasis the mineral belt of India on the wall map of India displayed in the class.

How do I proceed?-

1. Class will be divided into 5 groups consisting of 8 students each.
2. Each group will be provided with a laminated Map of India.
3. Students to use a specific color bindi to locate various minerals on the map.
4. Red bindi- Iron ore, brown/ orange- copper, black-coal, blue-petrol and yellow- bauxite

What have I observed?/ What have I learnt?

Mineral	States

