

Class- VIII

Subject- GEOGRAPHY

Lesson- 6– Human Resources

Activity- Populating the pyramid

Learning Outcome- Students will be able to analyze and interpret the data.

What I have to do?- Interpret the data provided in the population pyramid.

Time required- 2 periods

What do I need?- Data sheets and colored pens.

Type of activity- Group Work

What I already know?- What is a population Pyramid ?

Teacher's activity:

Teacher's Preparedness- Prepare rewritable data sheets consisting of population pyramid of India, Japan and Kenya. Population pyramids of India ,Kenya and Japan can be taken from NCERT book - Geography class VIII. A day before the activity teacher will explain key terms- birth rate, death rate, life expectancy and migration.

How will I proceed?-

1. Follow the instruction and divide yourself into 5 groups consisting of eight students each.
2. Analyze the pyramid and complete the sheets.
3. Share findings with class.
4. Draw and complete the observation sheet.

What have I observed?-

Determinants	India	Kenya	Japan

What have I learnt?-

Q1. Difference between the following-

- a. Birth and death rates
- b. Emigrants and immigrants
- c. Dependant population and working population

Q2. Answer the following:

- a. The densely populated areas in the world _____
- b. The sparsely populated areas in the world _____