

CLASS – VIII

Subject – HISTORY

Lesson- 5 – When people rebel: 1857 and after

Activity – CHARACTER PORTRAYAL

Learning Outcome: –Draw inspiration from the sacrifices made by the Indian leaders during the revolt of 1857.

What I have to do? – Character Portrayal of any one hero of revolt of 1857.

Time required – 60 minutes

Type of Activity– Pair work

What do I need? – Pictures pasted on the Ice cream sticks depicting the picture of various heroes of 1857 revolt (Mangal Pandey, Rani Laxmibai, Begum Hazrat Mahal, Bahadur Shah, Nana Saheb, Queen Elizabeth – I, Bakht Khan, Kunwar Singh)

What I already know?- The revolt of 1857 – causes , events and aftermaths.

Teacher's Activity-

Teacher's Preparedness- Prepare picture sticks on the heroes of 1857 revolt. Show a video on 1857 revolt to the class a day before the activity.

How will I proceed?:

1. Each pair will be asked to choose one ice-cream stick kept in such a way that the students cannot see the picture of the person pasted with that.
2. The students are expected to gather information about the name allotted and be prepared for character portrayal of the same.
3. Each pair will one by one, portray the respective character in front of the class. Time allotted to each student will be 2 minute.
4. Feedback will be provided by THE teacher.
5. Based on the activity all the students to fill in the observation sheet shown on ICR.

What have I learnt?- complete the worksheet in from the assignment booklet (sample provided)

3. Name and mark any 5 centres of 1857 with the names of the leaders.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

4. Present a character sketch for Rani Laxmi Bai of Jhansi glorifying her contributions for the country.
