Subject- S.St.

Month- July

Duration- 1 week.

Activity- Elect a leader Lesson-4 Key elements of a democratic government

Learning outcome – The students will be able to express and discover the need of a democratic government.

What I have to do? – Cast my vote

What I require? – Pen and a blank white small chit.

Nature of activity- Class activity

What I know? – Universal Adult Franchise.

How will I proceed?- Teacher's Activity- Teacher will ask the students to come forward for the election of class monitor. The students who will come forward will stand for the election. The students of the whole class will vote for their favorite candidate for the post of class monitor. Each candidate will make their own symbol for which the students will vote. A blank chit will be given to all the students of the class for giving votes.

Student's activity-

1. See the candidates who are standing for the post of class monitor.
2. Each candidate who is standing for the election will choose their symbol and display the same in the class.
3. They will do campaigning to convince the students and ask for votes.
4. All the students will look at the symbols of each candidate.
5. Draw the symbol of your favorite candidate on the chit.
6. Don't show the chit to anyone and don't show the symbol you have drawn.
7. One by one come near the box.
8. Keep the chit in the box with only one symbol drawn on the chit.

The box will be opened to see the result after all the students vote. Out of all the candidates standing for the election, one who will get the maximum votes from the students will be the class monitor.
