

Class: X

Subject: Social Science

DEMOCRATIC POLITICS

Chapter 5: Popular Struggles and Movements

Curiosity questions

1. Why don't all the pressure groups come to power and make rules, when they have the people's interest in mind?

Answer Guide

Think about

- a. Who are pressure groups?
 - b. What will become if pressure groups become political parties?
2. Most of the issue specific movements turns to generic movements, why?

Answer Guide

Think about

- a. Was "Narmadha Bachao Andolan", a issue specific or generic?
- b. When does a issue specific movement become generic?

Experiential Learning

1. Take a movement that had recently taken place in your locality/state and discuss the role of pressure groups in the class.