

SUBJECT - POLITICAL SCIENCE

CHAPTER –6 POLITICAL PARTIES

CLASS –X

DURATION: 1 DAY

Nature of activity: Individual

Learning outcome :Familiarize the students with the working of national parties and regional parties in the country.

1.What I have to do? Collect information and frame manifesto of political parties and complete observation table.

2.What do I require?

Pen, paper, scissors, flash cards ,symbols of political parties and questions.

3.Teacher’s activity

The teacher will –

- Collect the symbols of political parties –national and regional political parties of India
- Make flash cards out of that symbols
- Show the flash cards to students
- Ask them to choose at least 1 national and 1 regional parties or 2 regional political parties

4. How will I proceed?

Student’s activity

- a) Each Student will choose at least 1 national and 1 regional parties or 2 regional political parties in India.
- b) They will find out the following information related to the regional parties selected by them:
Number of seats the different regional parties have secured in the last Assembly and Lok Sabha elections.
- c) Assuming themselves a member of the political party the students will prepare an election manifesto for their Party .They will explain how their manifesto is different from the one given by the Political Parties.

5.What have you observed ?

OBSERVATION TABLE

S.No.	Political party	Nature of Party	Name of symbol	Party Manifesto
1
2
3
4
5
6
7

WORKSHEET

Q1) What are regional parties ? Name any five regional parties.

Q2) How many parties are registered with the Election Commission of India

Q3) Name the regional political predominant in Jharkhand, Maharashtra and Odisha

Q4) Differentiate between Regional Political Parties and National Political Parties with examples.
