

PATWARI

A QUARREL IN VILLAGE

RURAL ADMINISTRATION

PEOPLE WHO KEEP RECORDS, AND TAKE CARE OF THEIR NEEDS

POLICE STATION

- Every police station has an area that comes under its control.
- All persons in that area can report cases and inform about any theft, accident, injury, fight etc.
- It's the responsibility of the police to enquire or to investigate and take action on the cases within its area.
- Person in charge is called SHO(station house officer).
- Constable is there to investigate and file the case.

MAINTENANCE OF LAND RECORDS

PATWARI

- Patwari-His main work is measuring land and keeping land records.
- The Patwari maintains and update the records of the villages.
- The Patwari is known by different names in different states.
- In some villages such officers are called Lekhpal.
- In others Kanungo or Karamchari or village officer etc.
- Patwari measures agriculture fields using chains.
- Patwari is also responsible for organizing and collections of land revenue from the farmers.
- He also provide information to government about the crops grown in these area.
- Senior people supervise Patwari work.

MAINTENANCE OF RECORD

TEHSILDAR

- All states are divided into districts and they are further sub-divided into different names such as Tehsil, Taluka.
- Head is called District Collector and under her are the revenue officers, also know as Tehsildar.
- They also supervise the work of patwaris and ensures that records are kept properly and land revenue is collected.
- They ensure that farmers can easily obtain a copy of their record and students can get their caste certificate etc.
- The tehsildar's office is where land dispute can be heard.
- Tehsildar is also knows as Superintendent of the police.

A NEW LAW

HINDU SUCCESSION AMENDMENT ACT, 2005

- In the new law sons, daughter and their mother can get equal share in the land.
- This law will apply to all the states and union territories of the country.
- This law benefits a large number of women.

