

A DIFFERENT KIND OF SCHOOL

- E. V. LUCAS

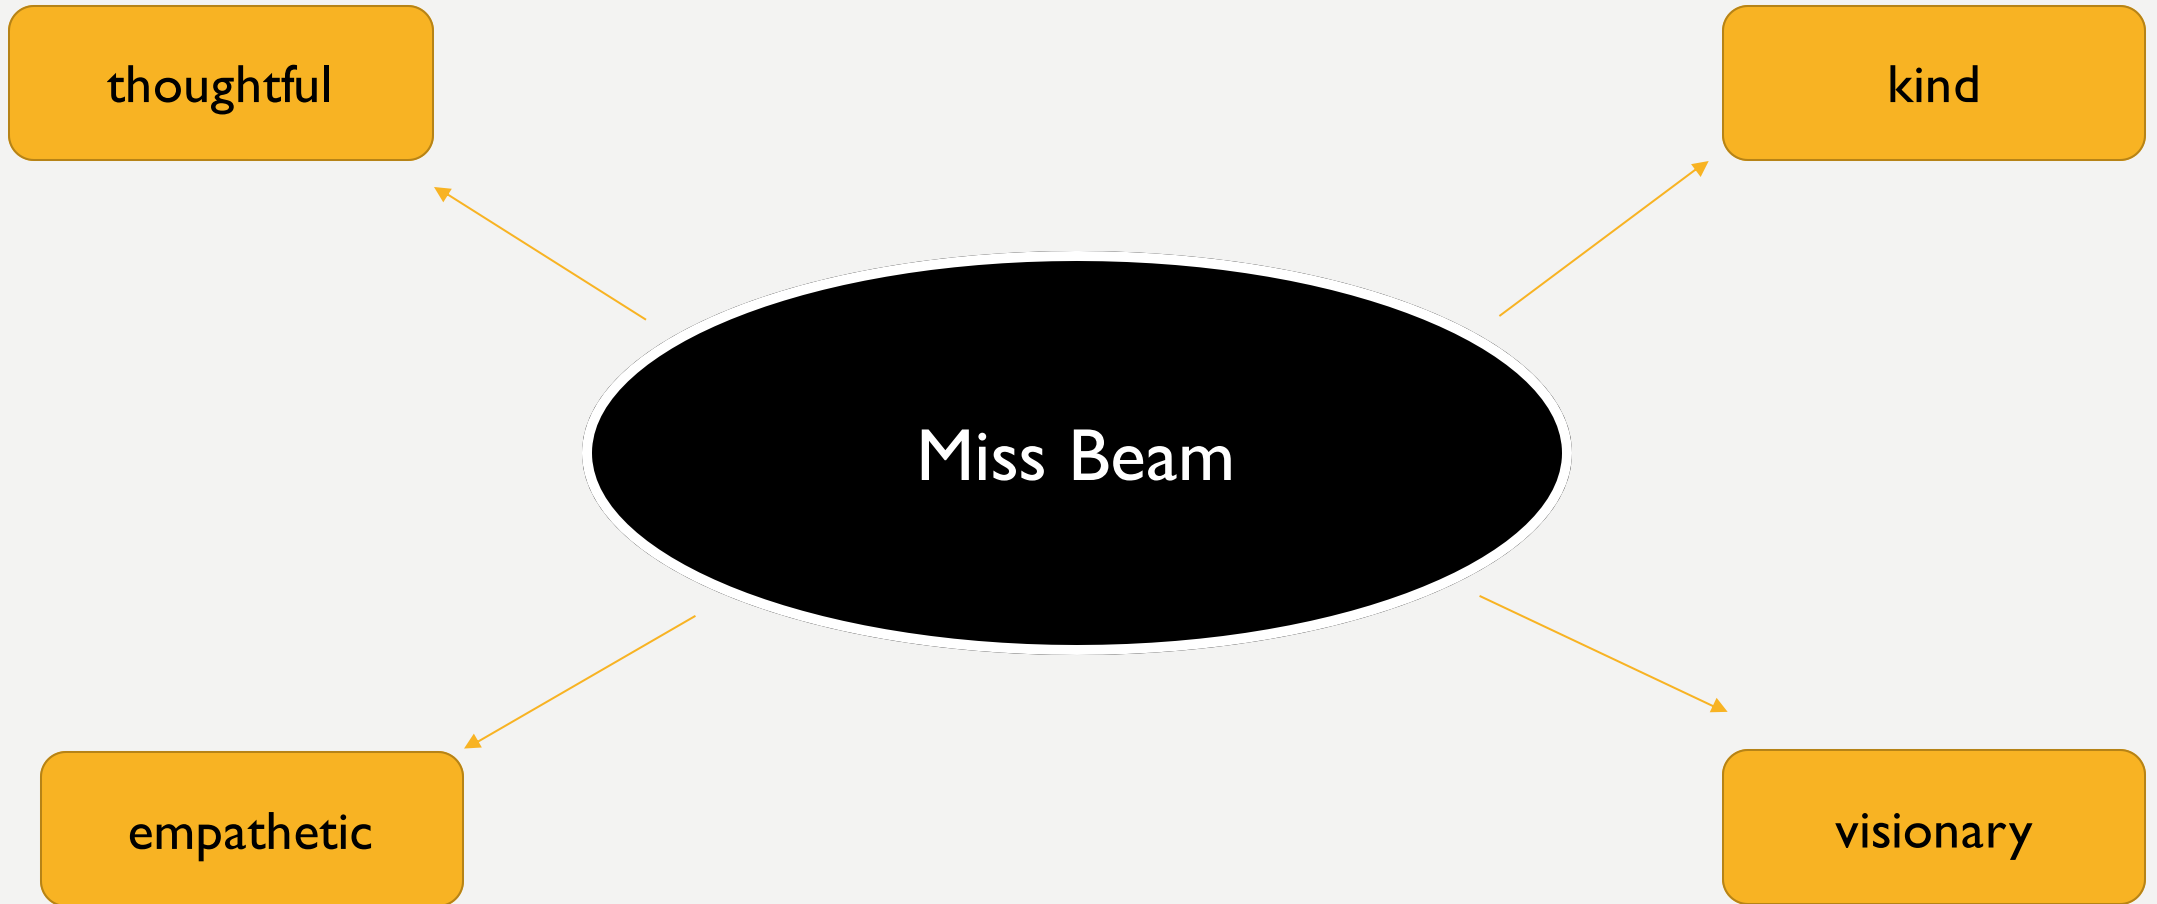

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

- Edward Verral Lucas was born in June' 1868 to a Quaker family in London.
- He was an English humourist, poet, short story writer, publisher, novelist and editor.
- He is best remembered for his short essays.
- He died at the age of 70 in the year 1938.

SUMMARY

This is a story about a lady, Miss Beam who ran a different kind of school. The school taught the learners simple spelling, adding, subtracting, multiplying and writing but the real aim of the school was to teach thoughtfulness, kindness and produce responsible citizens. In order to make the children appreciate and understand misfortune they were made to share their misfortunes too. Each term every child had one blind day, one lame day, one deaf day and one day. By the end of each day the child realised what misfortune is and became more thoughtful.

CHARACTER SKETCH

THANK YOU