

A decorative graphic consisting of stylized circuit lines in a light blue color. These lines extend horizontally from the left and right edges of the central dark rectangle, featuring several small circular nodes at various points.

THE QUARREL

POET - ELEANOR FARJEON

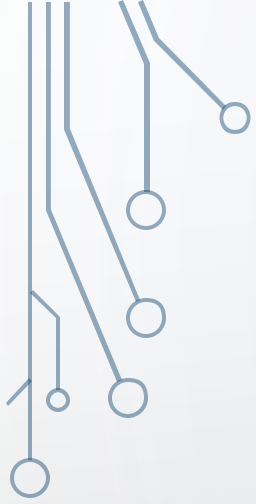

SYNOPSIS

Poet study

Summary

questions

POET

-

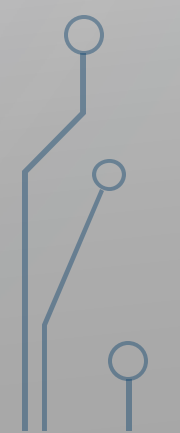

ELEANOR FARJEON

Eleanor Farjeon, poet and a children's book writer was born in an artistic family. She did not receive formal education but was very creative. She started writing books for adult readers but eventually wrote for kids and became a celebrated children's book writer. The children's book circle has established Eleanor Farjeon award in her honour. Her work includes books like:

The glass slipper

The two bouquets and many more

SUMMARY

- This poem is about two siblings who fought for no reason. Their quarrel continued for a couple of hours. Both of them were not ready to resolve the quarrel. Finally poet's brother ,without any argument ,admitted his mistake and the quarrel was resolved

QUESTIONS

- Whom do you think was right ,poet or her brother ?Give reasons to support your answer.
- Why do you think he took the initiative to reconcile.
- Compare and contrast both the characters in the poem