

We're Not Afraid to Die...if We Can All Be Together
-Gordon Cook and Alan East

Gordon Cook and Alan East

Replicating round the world voyage

Gordon Cook, Mary, Jonathan and Suzanne set sail to imitate round-the world voyage in 1768.

The journey commenced from Plymouth, England and headed south to Cape Town, South Africa

December 25, 1976 weather was atrocious

Celebrated Christmas.

weather was still atrocious.

3. Celebrated Christmas.

January 2, Gigantic waves 1977 Ship rises to the top of each wave, storm jib dropped, donned oilskins and life jackets,

wave

Ship rises to the top of each wave

January 3, 1977

Survived 48 hours, Auxiliary engine failed

Disasters were confronted with patience, courage and determination.

January 5, 1977, Before 6.00 pm the ship reached Ile Amsterdam

January 4, 1977

Water level almost dipped, Hoisted the storm jib, headed to Ile Amsterdam, Ate a meal after 48 hours