

Class I Infographic

Learning Outcome Addressed: (LO 8): Identifies characters and sequence of a story and asks questions about the story.

When learners begin predicting the sequence of events or ask questions, then it shows their engagement with the story.

The learner may be encouraged to think about the possible series of events and give the story an interesting end.

It is suggested that elders encourage learners to put questions and not be dismissive about them.

