The Baby Bulbuls

Mama and Papa Bulbul were making a nest. They found a safe place. Mama Bulbul brought a twig. Papa Bulbul brought some straws. Papa Bulbul carried soft moss.

The little nest was soon ready. It was soft and warm. Mama Bulbul laid three small eggs. She sat on them to keep them warm. Sometimes she went out. Papa Bulbul then sat on the eggs.

One day the eggs broke open. CRACK! Three little heads popped out. Papa Bulbul brought them worms to eat. He also brought them grains. The babies grew bigger. One day they flew away.

Guidance for evaluation: The teacher narrates the story asking questions to ascertain the child's understanding and opinions:

- This is a family of birds. Which birds are they?
- Who built the nest? Only Papa? Only Mama? Or both?
- Who looked after the eggs? Only
- Mama? Only Papa? Or both?
- Is it good that both shared the work? Why?
