

Learning Outcomes Addressed: Responds to comprehension questions related to store / poems in home language / English in phrases / short sentences.

The Railway Station

There's a lady who sells us tickets,
There's a man who carries our bags,
There's a boy who checks the tracks,
There's a man who waves the flags.

There's a stall that sells tea,
Newspapers and things.
There are different light for singles,
And a bell that rings.

Guidance for Evaluation: the teacher uses the following fill in the blanks to ascertain learners' understanding:

Q1. The poem describes the scene of astation.

Q2.sells the tickets.

Q3. The boy checks the

Q4.....waves the flags.

Q5. The stall sells.....and