“Don’t cry ‘wolf’ when there’s no wolf, boy!”, they said angrily and left. After some days, he got bored again and cried ‘wolf!’ again, fooling the villagers a second time. The angry villagers warned the boy a second time and left.

One day, he saw a real wolf and cried loudly, “Wolf! Please help! The wolf is chasing the sheep. Help!” But this time, no one turned up to help. By evening, when the boy didn’t return home, the villagers wondered what happened to him and went up the hill. The boy was sitting on the hill weeping. “Why didn’t you come when I called out that there was a wolf?” he asked angrily.
