LEARNING OBJECTIVES

1. Read the text aloud with correct pronunciation, intonation, pause and articulation of voice.
2. Explain the theme of the lesson i.e. The Child and Nature .
3. Recognize the proper use of parts of speech and apply it to given exercises.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Uses a variety of nouns, pronouns, adjectives and prepositions in context as compared to previous class, in order to demonstrate oral and written skills in speaking/writing meaningful short sentences in English.

OUR CHARACTERS

Aman is an amazing artist and is keen to explore and help others. He is a studious boy. He is eight years old.

Suhani is six years old. She is fond of flowers and games.

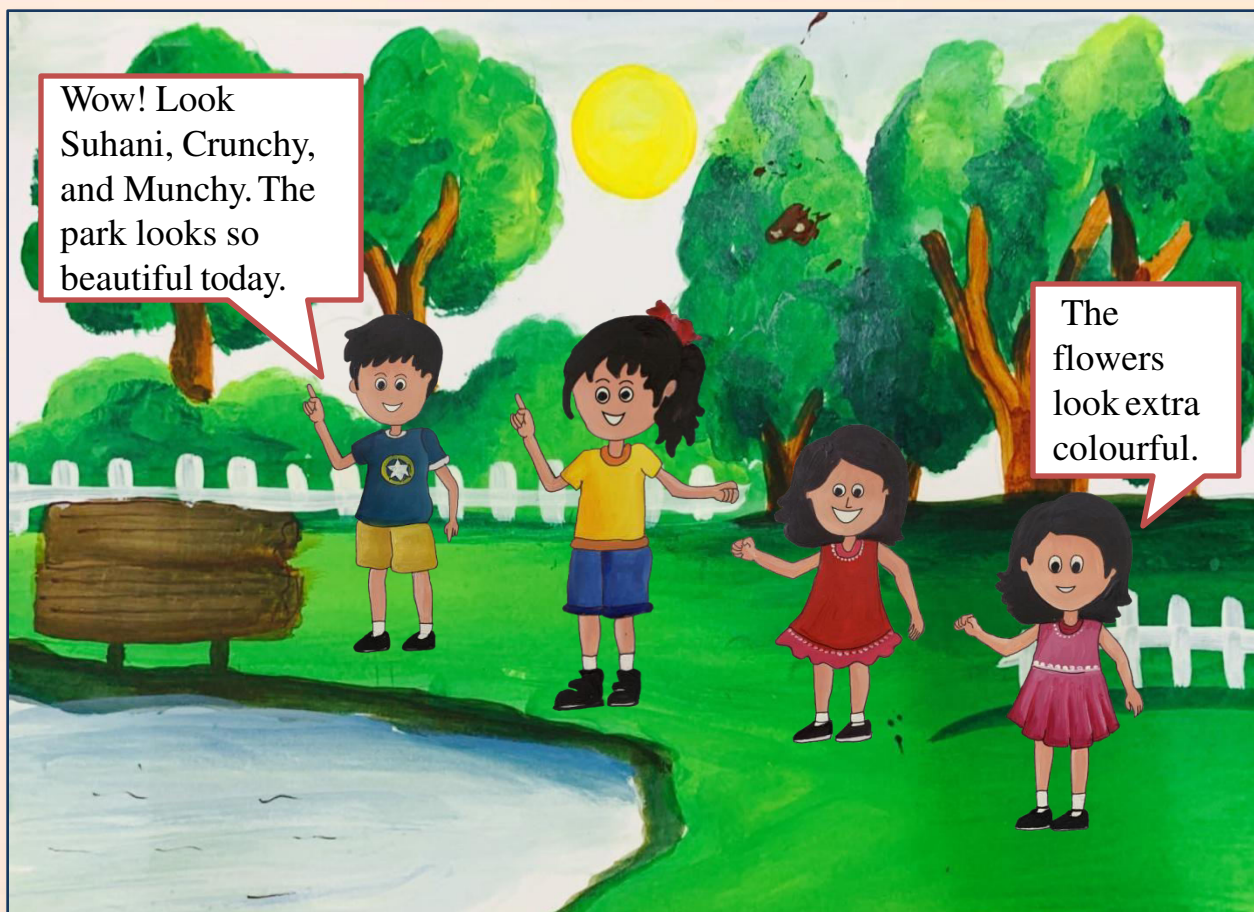

Rohit is Suhani's friend. He is a curious learner. He is also six years old.

Crunchy is six years old. She has a twin sister. She loves to play games. She does not like books but loves dressing up.

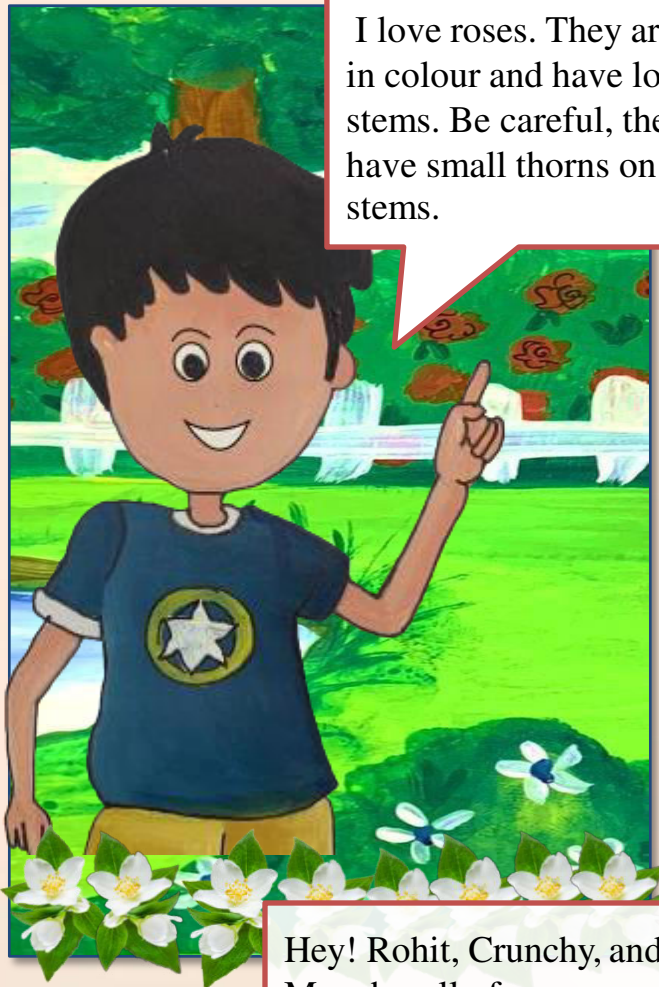

Munchy is Crunchy's twin sister. She loves to play games. She likes to eat junk food.

Rohit, Suhani, Crunchy and Munchy are four friends. They have come out to play in the park. It has just stopped raining.

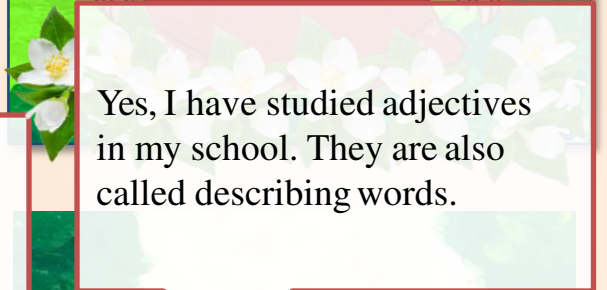

I love roses. They are red in colour and have long stems. Be careful, they also have small thorns on their stems.

My favourite flower is sunflower. It is bright yellow in colour.

Hey! Rohit, Crunchy, and Munchy, all of you are using adjectives to describe these flowers, right?

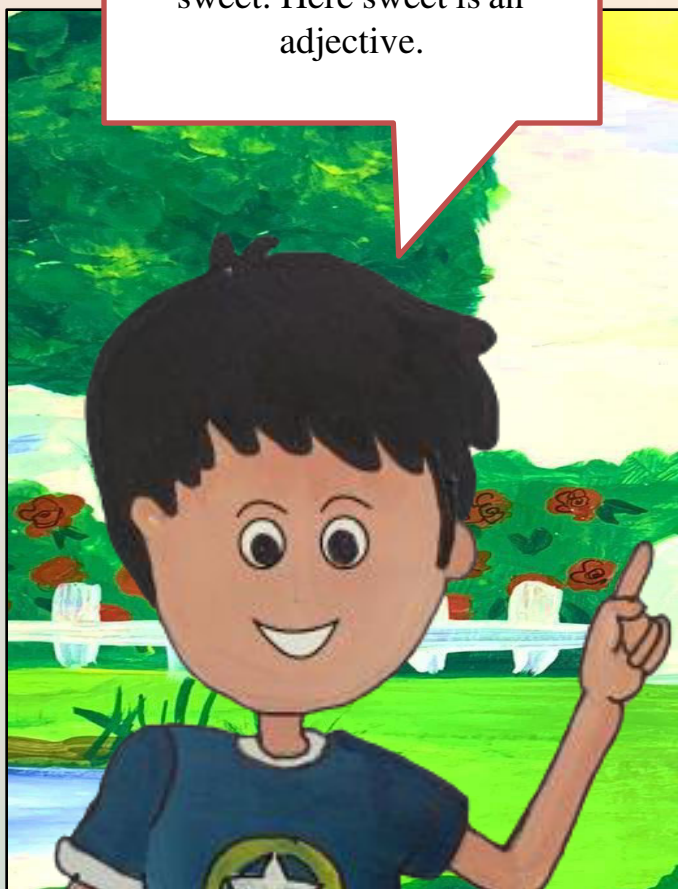

Yes, I have studied adjectives in my school. They are also called describing words.

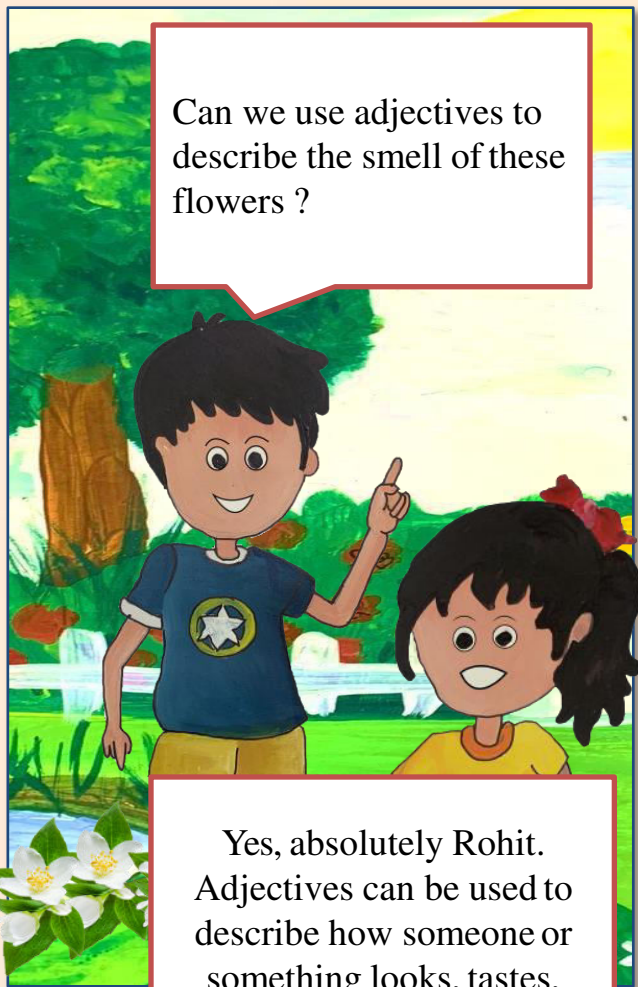

Yes Crunchy. Adjectives are describing words and they are used to describe nouns or pronouns.

For example: The roses smell sweet. Here sweet is an adjective.

Can we use adjectives to describe the smell of these flowers ?

Yes, absolutely Rohit. Adjectives can be used to describe how someone or something looks, tastes, smells or sounds like.

What about number?

Yes, the number can also be an adjective. There are different kinds of adjectives.

What are different kinds of adjectives?

We should go and ask Aman. He knows the different kinds of adjectives.

We should go to his house and ask for help.

I will also come along with you.

And me too!

Everyone is excited to meet Aman.

ACTIVITY TIME

Play this game with your friends. Take any newspaper article and underline all the adjectives in the decided time. The child with the most number of underlined adjectives will win the game.

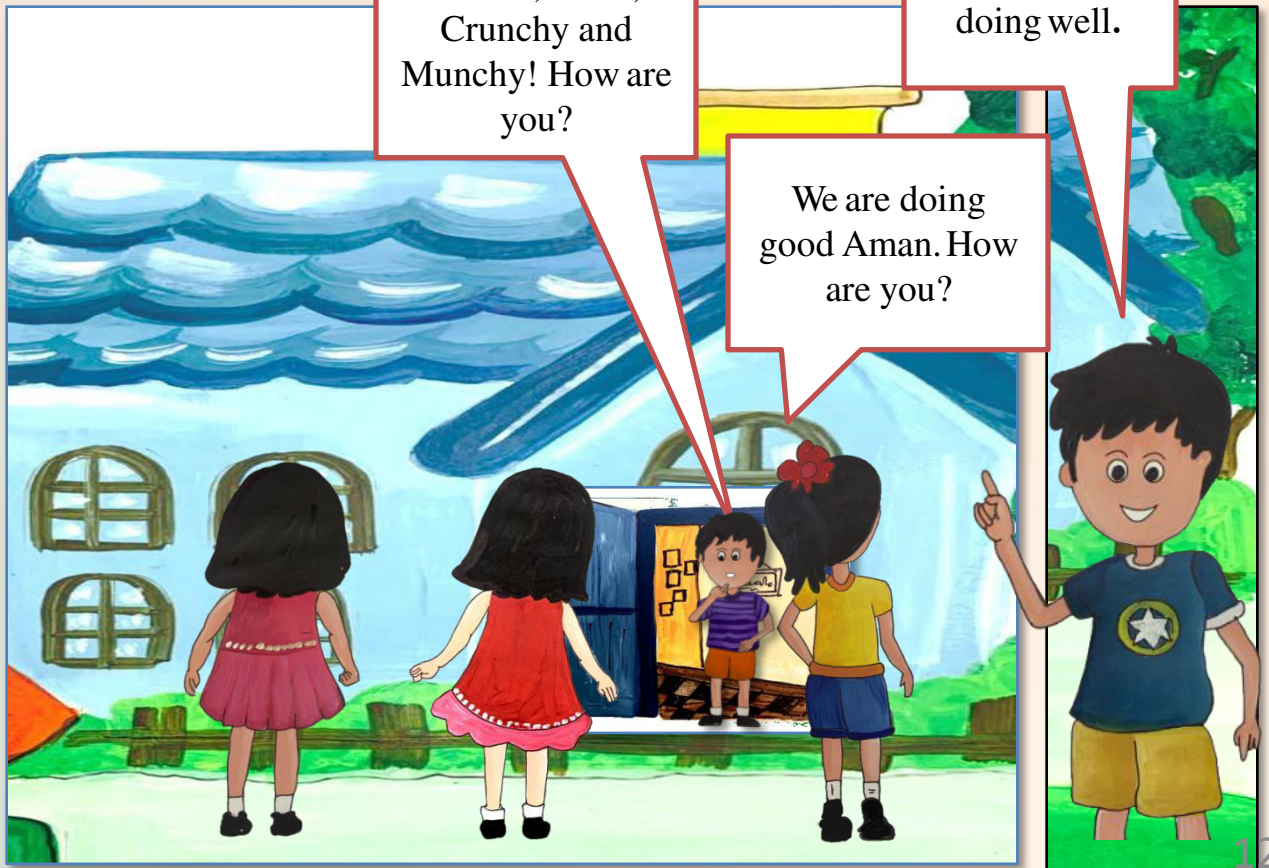

Rohit, Suhani, Crunchy and Munchy are waiting at the door for Aman.

Suhani, Rohit, Crunchy and Munchy! How are you?

I am also doing well.

We are doing good Aman. How are you?

Aman, we are here to ask you about kinds of adjectives. Do you know about them?

Ha ha! Please come to my kitchen garden friends. I will tell you about kinds of adjectives.

Do you want some water?

No thank you Aman.

Your garden is very beautiful. I can see many vegetables here.

Yes, my mother cooks delicious food with these vegetables.

I can also see seventeen ladyfingers in your kitchen garden.

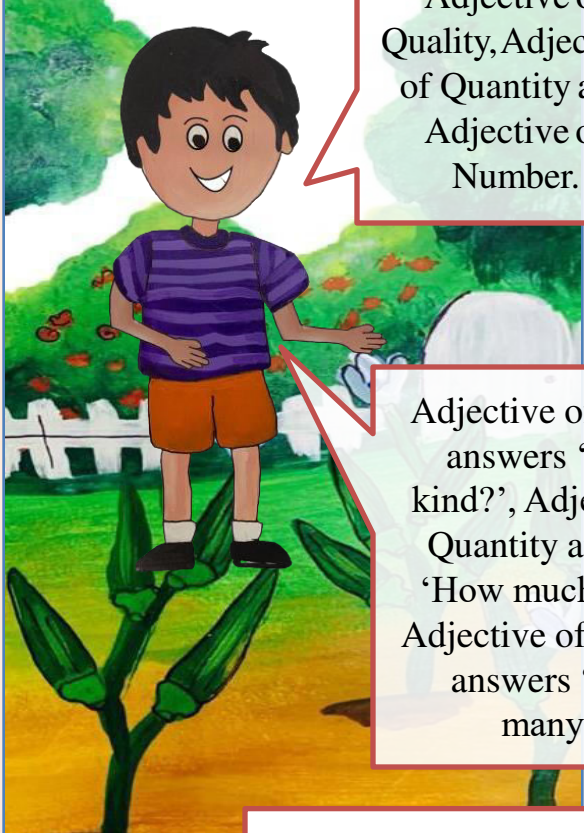

As they enter Aman's kitchen garden, they see different fruits and vegetables that Aman has grown.

See, you are already using three different kinds of adjectives to describe my kitchen garden.

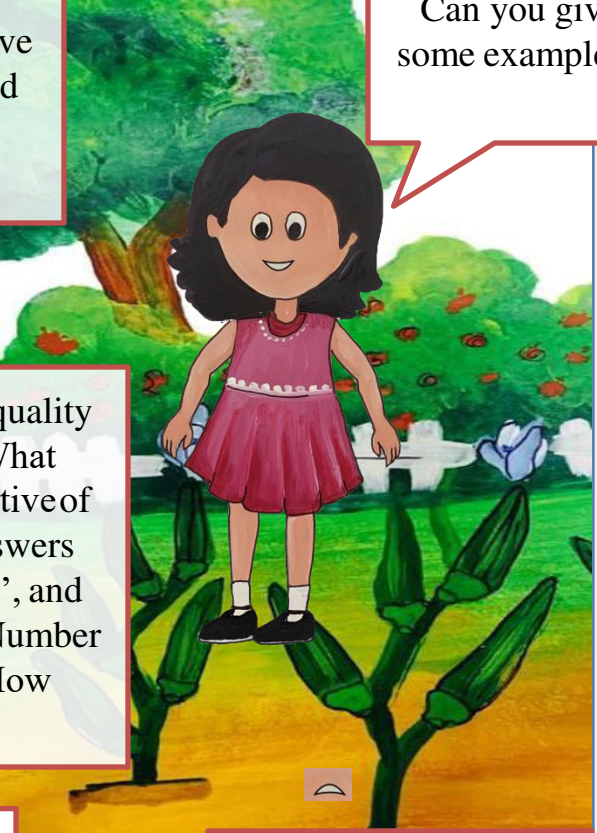

Really? Please do tell us about these three kinds of adjectives, Aman?

You are using Adjective of Quality, Adjective of Quantity and Adjective of Number.

Can you give some examples?

Adjective of quality answers 'What kind?', Adjective of Quantity answers
'How much?', and Adjective of Number answers 'How many?'

Sure! You described my kitchen garden as beautiful. That is an example of Adjective
of Quality.

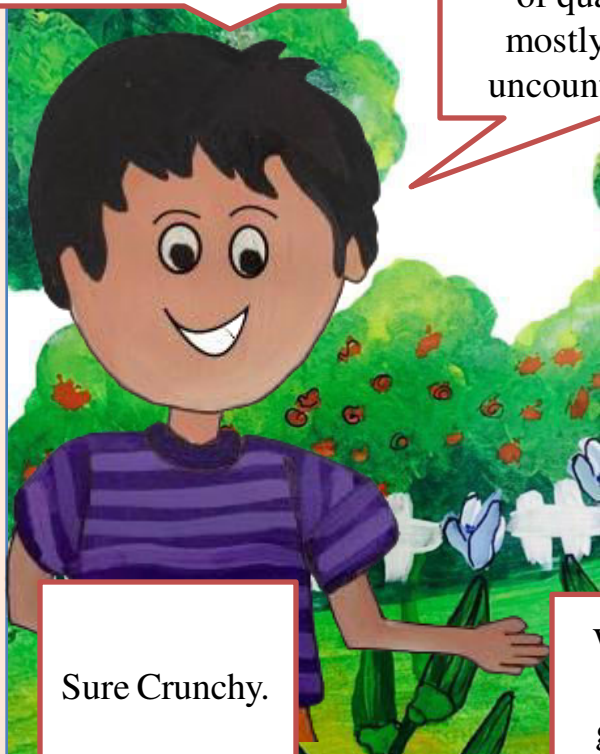

I can see seventeen
ladyfingers. So,
seventeen is an example of Adjective
of Number. Am I correct Aman?

Wonderful! Adjective of number mostly describes countable nouns.

When you entered my room, I asked you for some water. Here, 'some' is an adjective of quantity. It is mostly used with uncountable nouns.

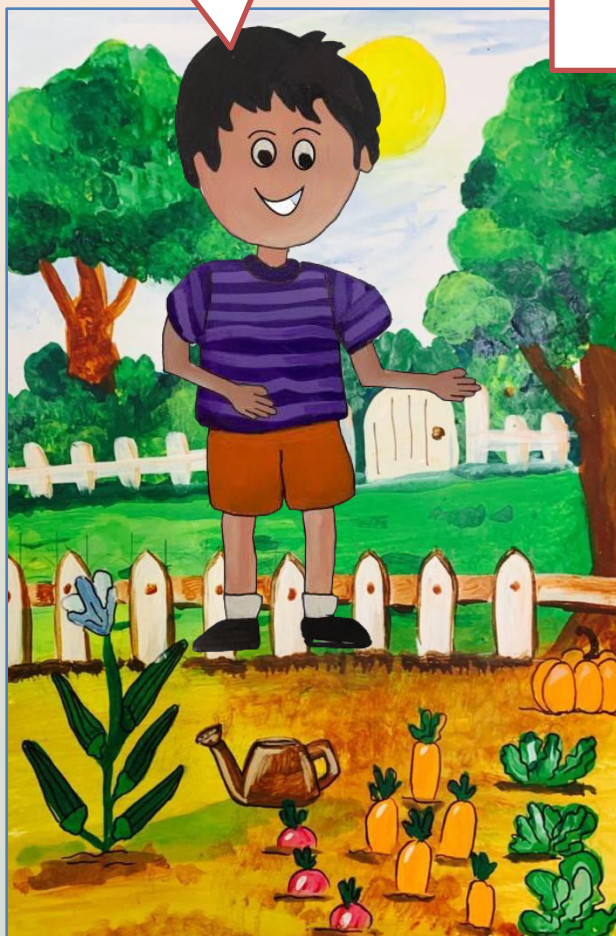

What about Adjective of quantity, Aman?

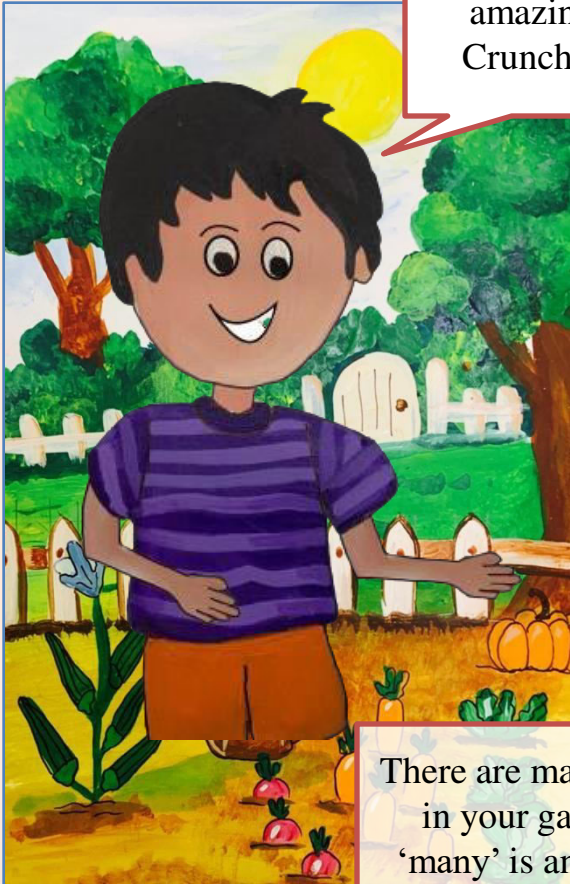

Sure Crunchy.

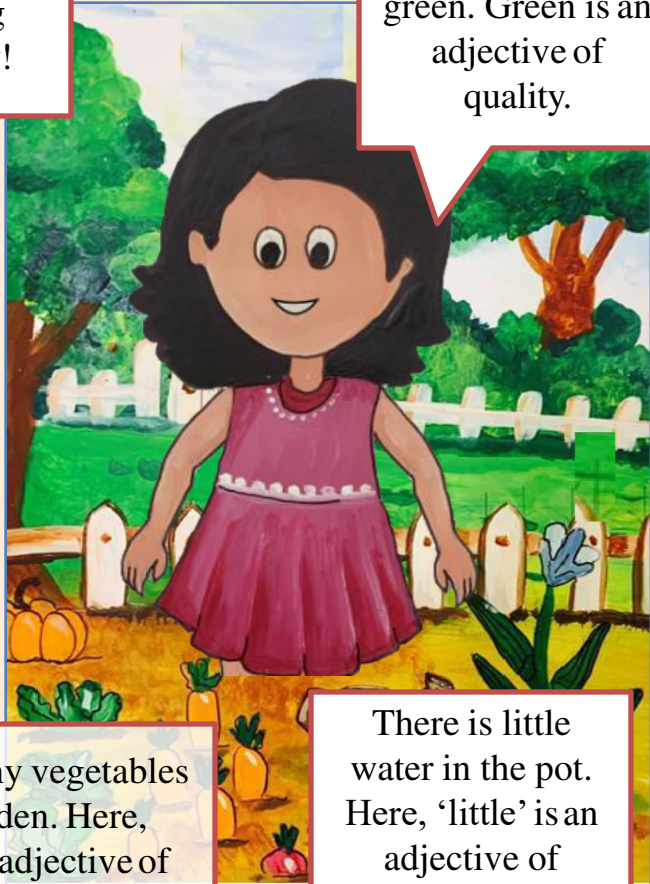

Wow! Thank you so much Aman. Can I give more examples from your kitchen garden?

That is amazing Crunchy!

The plants look green. Green is an adjective of quality.

There are many vegetables
in your garden. Here,
'many' is an adjective of
number as it tells you 'how
many'.

There is little water in the pot. Here, 'little' is an adjective of quantity.

That is fantastic! All of you know about three kinds of adjectives now.

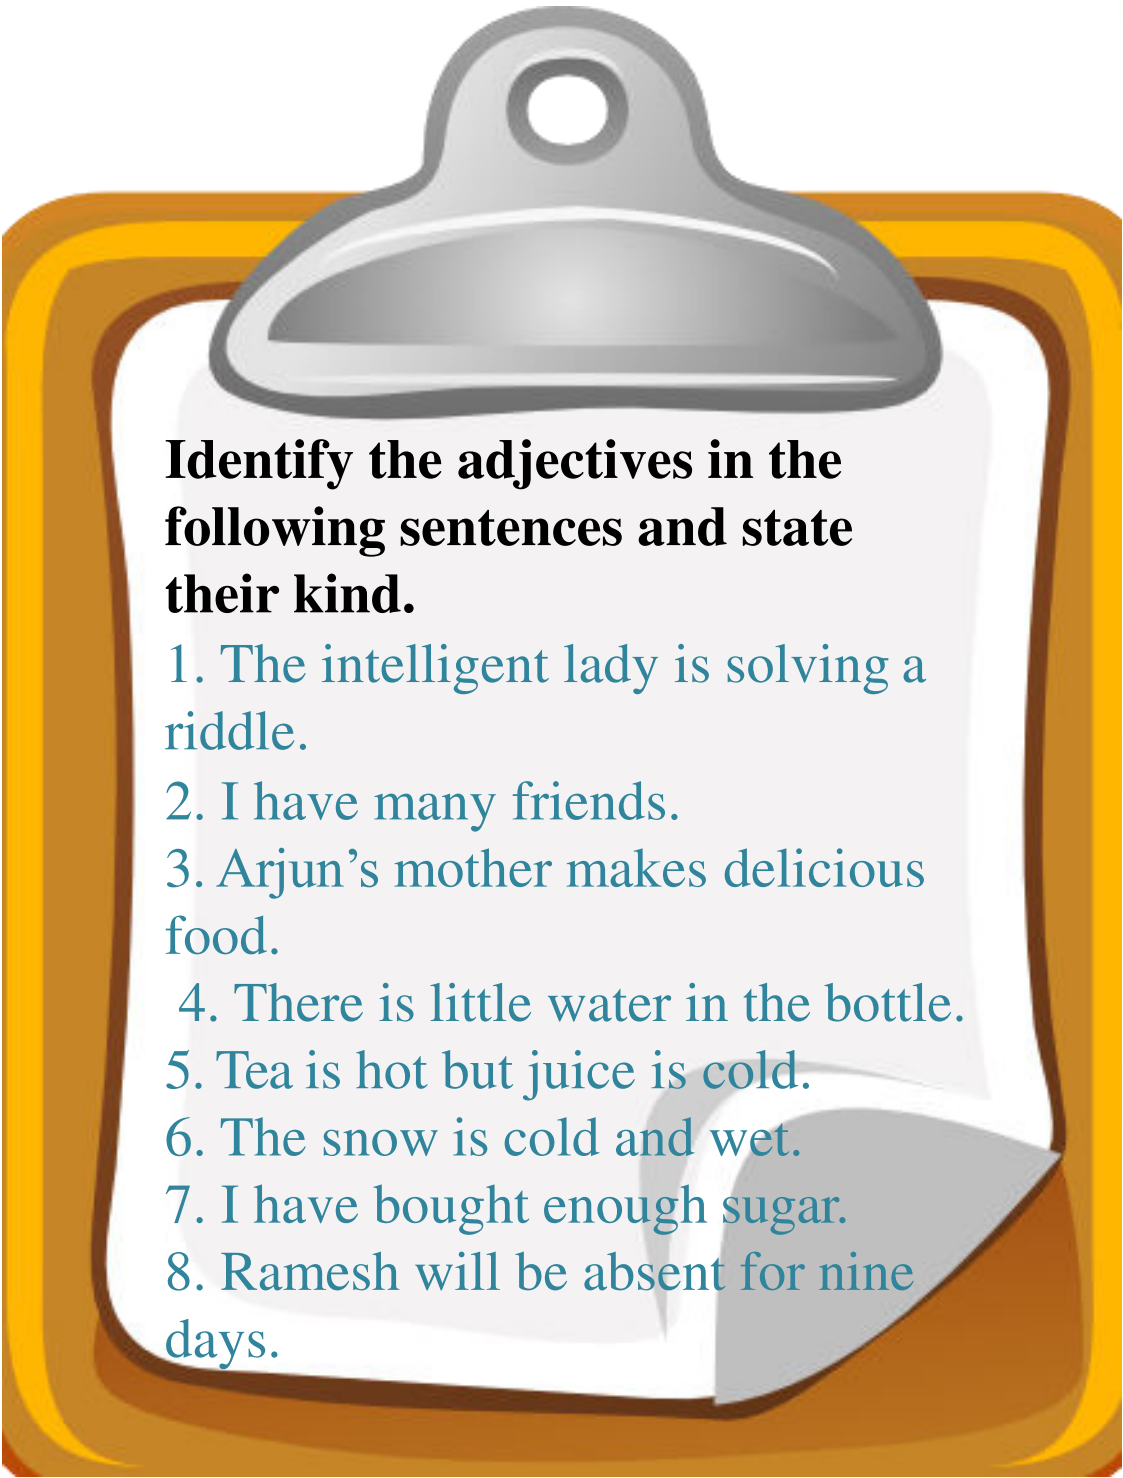

Thank you Aman.

Thank you Aman.
