

Lesson Plan- Ch--3(A Day with Nandu)

Learning Goals	• Children discover the various facts of animal behavior. • Identify, observe and develop recording skills. • Able to observe the co-operated nature of animals • Able to develop love and sensitivity for animals.
Learning Outcomes (LO)	• Students will able to identify animals • Able to tell the no of member in the elephant herd. • Able to differentiate the life of male and female members living in herd. • Able to tell elephants food habits • Able to tell about an elephant's trunk and tusk • Discover the facts of helping nature of the elephants and other animals • Able to tell uses of ears. • Playing nature of elephant with mud and water. • Swimming nature of elephant.
Teaching Learning Activities Planned	• Flash cards of animals • Draw an elephant and colour it • Make a collage of the elephant herds in your scrap book • Pictures on food habits of elephants • Show pictures on their features • Picture of other animals used for riding. • Make a mask of elephant • Show wild life sanctuaries for the elephant in India on map
Questions on TLOs, HOTS & Correlation with other Subjects	1.Which is the biggest animals on land? 2. Where the elephant live? 3.How many members in an elephant herd? 4 Which other animals live in herd? 5.What is the average weight of an elephants? 6.If Nandu weight is 200kg. Find out –the weight of how many children like you will add up to Nandu 's weight?

	7. An elephant consume.....kg food per day. 8. An elephant spendhours in a day eating. 9. How many muscles in elephant trunk? 10. Write the uses of their tusk. 11. Other name of tusk..... Have you take a ride on elephant? 13. Which animals have you sat on? 14. How the elephant are useful for human
Life Skills to be developed	- Students will gain the knowledge of different animals and develop love and care for animals. Students will learn the advantage of living in group - Develop the skill of co-operation - Knowledge of different types of food. - Development of skill of working together Scientific attitude can be develop
Suggested Activities to inculcate Life Skills	- Visit nearest zoo to observe the animals - Collect and paste the pictures of other animals living in herd - Show different types of food. - Students tell which food the elephant eat - Pictures of different animals used for ride - Show the pictures of different animals : domestic and wild
Strategies to evaluate Life Skills	See the flash cards, observe them and tell the names of animals Questions related to the topic asked to students. 1. What is herd ? 2. Why some animals live in a group? Work sheet given to them related to different food. Work given to students in which they use their body parts. Why do people kill animals?

	Name the wild life sanctuaries in India
--	---