Good Morning

Good Morning, sky;
Good Morning, sun;
Good Morning, little winds that run!
Good Morning, birds;
Good Morning, trees;
And creeping grass, and brownie bees!
How did you find out it was day?
Who told you night had gone away?
I'm wide awake;
I'm up now, too.
I'll be right out to play with you!

New words

creeping, awake, gone away

Fannie R. Buchanan

SUMMARY:

The poem is about a child who is very excited about the morning as it's a new day and everything is fresh and bright. The child is very happy and ready to enjoy and play in the pleasant morning. The child in the poem wishes good morning to the sun , sky , birds, trees and bees. The child is very curious to know about the grass and the bees that how they know about that is morning and night had gone away. The child is also awake and is ready to play and enjoy outside in the fresh morning.
