

Lesson Plan- Ch-. 04 The Story of AMRITA

Learning Goals	• Children may know about out line maps • To encourage the students plant more trees • Students will be able to know the uses of trees • Students should know about importance of animals • Children should know the importance of forest
Learning Outcomes (LO)	• Children will be able to understand how people, animals and plants live in deserts and how they adapt themselves • Develop mapping skills • To encourage the students plant more trees • To encourage the students plant more trees
Teaching Learning Activities Planned	Show the ppt and globe to the students ➤ Show the students different types of trees and seeds ➤ Show some forest documentary picture ➤ Make a table of uses of trees in your surrounding ➤ Show some pictures and films about animals ➤ Internet Video ➤ Quiz
Questions on TLOs, HOTS & Correlation with other Subjects	. Draw the map showing route from your home to school. • Do you plant any tree on your birthday • . How can you help your parents in gardening? • . What do we get from trees? • . Do you have any pet animal in your house? Why forests are important for us?
Life Skills to be developed	• To Develop a hobby of gardening • To develop a kindness for animals on in children • Thinking and encourage the students to plants more tree • To use map in our daily life • Critical thinking / perspicacity. • Effective communication. • Interpersonal relationships. • Self-awareness/ mindfulness.

Suggested Activities to inculcate Life Skills	• Take a tour of any garden or a park and show them real plants and trees • Show them any film on importance of trees • Take a tour to zoo or national park • To make a list of uses of any five forest plants • ask the students make a own globe or map
Strategies to evaluate Life Skills	• Questioning about location of different states of India • Questioning about importance of tree in our daily life • Write any five things we get from trees • By asking questions on wild animals and pet animals • By asking questions on wild things