

The Balloon Man

New words

Rose Fyleman

Explanation of Stanza -1

The poetess is talking about the balloon seller who comes regularly in the market carrying the lovely bunch of balloons .He stands in the middle of market square ,but he forgets to have his lunch

Explanation of stanza-2

The balloon man is carrying the balloons of different colors like red, green, purple and blue on a sunny day. Whereas the carts and people are coming and going in between but you can see them shining from far away.

Explanation of Stanza-3

The balloons vary in colors but also in shapes, like some are big and some are small but interesting fact is that they all are tied with a string. But if the wind blows it/they would be pulled like anything up in the air.

Explanation of Stanza-4

Other days,he keeps on holding the balloons still,but someday he let them fly high in the sky.And we (the children) see them floating up above the sky and still it look so pretty floating.
