

LESSON PLAN

CLASS X	UNIT:-POLITICAL SCIENCE
TOPIC:-	POLITICAL PARTIES
DURATION	4 Periods (APPROX: 40 MINUTES)
SUP TOPICS	➤ Why do we need political parties? ➤ Components of political parties. ➤ How many political parties should we have? ➤ Types of political parties.
LEARNING OBJECTIVES	1. To understand the types and importance of political Parties in Democracy. 2. Analyze party system in Democracies. 3. Introduction to major political parties in the countries
RESOURCES	NCERT book of political science, Reference book (Exam idea), video (Election Campaign) Election Manifesto
ASSESSMENT TECHNIQUE	Written test, oral test, chart making, poster making
PRE-REQUISITE THE TOPIC	THIS LESSON REQUIRES- 1. Basic knowledge of electoral representation 2. Knowledge of basic ideas political parties 3. Knowledge about Adult Franchise and the way parties working
TRANSACTION METHODOLOGY	DAY ONE :-(Pre-Requisite for course) The teacher will begin by asking students what they think a political party is. Is it like a birthday party? Or something else? Tell them that in this case, “party” means a group of people who believe in similar things. Announcement of the topic “Why do we need political parties”?

Competencies	Analyzing the situation of democratic government without Elections, Critical thinking.
	HOME ASSIGNMENT:- Read the page number 4, 5, 6 of your NCERT book.
DAY TWO	TOPIC “working of political parties”. In this topic teacher will explain the working of political parties by giving day to day examples(election- contest, making of government, role of opposition etc) Students will go through NCERT book.
DAY THREE	- TOPIC: - “How many political parties should we have”? Competencies: - Mind mapping Teacher will discuss the party system by making flow chart on the class board. Single Party system two party system multi party system Example (China) Example (America)(Example India) HOME- WORK- Students will ask to make a chart discussed in the class. DAY FOUR TOPIC-“National parties and State Parties” Competencies- Video based on election campaign Teacher will ask the questions based on previous knowledge. Students will go through NCERT text book. HOME-WORK- Answer the following questions:- ➤ Differentiate between National Parties and State Parties. Explain the Universal Adult Franchises

KEY- WORDS	:-Election, Politics, Candidate, Election' campaign, Voting system, Political Parties, Platform
VALUES	Patience, Awareness co-cooperation and patriotism
LEARNING OUTCOMES	After reading of the chapter students would be able to explain- - Importance of democracy - Working of political parties - Election Campaign - Adult franchise
SKILLS	- Students will compare India as a democratic country with other countries those don't have democratic government
INTERDISCIPLINARY PROJECTS	Fine Arts – Chart making on symbols of political parties