

Summary

Nina is sad. Mother asks why is she sad?. She says that there's a sparrow's nest on the bookshelf in my room. And there are two baby sparrows in the nest. Mother says that she will leave the window open. Mother suggests that all the things from the room will be removed and lock the door on the outside. So the house will be perfectly safe and papa and mama sparrows can come and go freely, too. Nina becomes happy again. When Nina comes back from the wedding, the two plump little sparrows fly all over the room. Nina becomes thrilled!
