NINA AND THE BABY SPARROWS

There was great joy in Nina's house. Nina's aunt was getting married. Nina, her father, mother and little brother were all going to Delhi for a wedding. Everyone was happy, except Nina.

Her mother took her to market to buy a new dress.

"What colour would you like?," Mother asked.

"I don't want a new dress, Mother", said Nina.

"Salwar-kameez then?"

Nina shook her head.

"What about those lovely white shoes you saw last week?"

"I don't want those, either. Thank you, Mother."

Nina's mother was upset, but she said nothing. They went back home and had lunch. After lunch mother came and sat near Nina. "What is it, child?" she asked. "Why did you say 'no' to everything?"

"Mother, I don't want to go to the wedding."

"But why?"

Nina said nothing.

Instead, two big tears rolled down her cheeks.

Mother put her arms around Nina. "Don't cry,

my pet," she said. "Why don't you tell me what's bothering you?"

More tears rolled down Nina's cheeks.

"Mother," she said, "there's a sparrow's nest on the bookshelf in my room. And there are two baby sparrows

in the nest."

"I see...", said mother.

"They're just beginning to get their feathers. And growing up makes them so hungry. All day long they cry 'cheep-cheep', asking for food."

"I see!", said Mother.

"If we go, the whole place will be locked. And how will papa and mama sparrows feed their babies?"

"Oh Nina," cried Mother, giving her a big hug. "Is that why you don't want to go to the wedding? But that's no problem at all. We'll leave the window open."

"Oh, can we, Mother? Can we? Really?"

"Yes, yes. We'll remove all your things from the room and lock the door on the outside. So the house will be perfectly safe and papa and m a m a sparrows can come and go freely, too.

Just think, Nina... while you enjoy yourself at the wedding, the baby sparrows will be getting nice and fat in their nest. Good idea, isn't it?"

It was a good idea. When Nina came back from the wedding, there were two plump little sparrows flying all over the room. And wasn't Nina thrilled!
