

Topic: Use of Describing words (Adjectives)

An adjective or describing word is one which describes or tells us more about a noun. For example- The elephant is a big, strong and intelligent animal.

Here, the words – big, strong, intelligent are used to describe the elephant. So these are adjectives or describing words.

Q. Fill in the blanks with a suitable describing word-

- i. My grandmother told me a _____ story. (nnyuf)
- ii. Singapore is a _____ country. (msoufa)
- iii. This room has been decorated by my _____ daughter. (fbeatliuu)
- iv. Each child received an _____ gift. (xpeseneiv)
- v. Abdul won the _____ prize. (scndoe)
- vi. The apples are _____ and _____. (stwee, jcuiy)
- vii. Wild animals usually live in _____ forest. (dnsee)
- viii. My pet dog has _____ and _____ fur. (sfto, hnysi)
- ix. My mother made _____ lunch for me. (dleuciso)
- x. A _____ breeze is blowing. (gtlene)

Topic: Forms of Verbs

Please revise these verb forms given as example. Try to find out more such commonly used verbs.

Simple form	-s form	Past tense form	-ing form (Present continuous form)
help	helps	helped	helping
begin	begins	began	beginning
bring	brings	brought	bringing
buy	buys	bought	buying
come	comes	came	coming
try	tries	tried	trying
write	writes	wrote	writing
drink	drinks	drank	drinking
give	gives	gave	giving
speak	speaks	spoke	speaking
run	runs	ran	running

