

JUDICIARY

Edit with WPS Office

Organization of the Judicial System in India

Supreme Court of India

The highest court of LAW

- ❖ Composition and Appointment.
- ❖ Appointment of Judges
 - Qualifications
 - Tenure and Removal
- ❖ Prohibition of Practice after Retirement.
- ❖ Other Facilities.

Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court

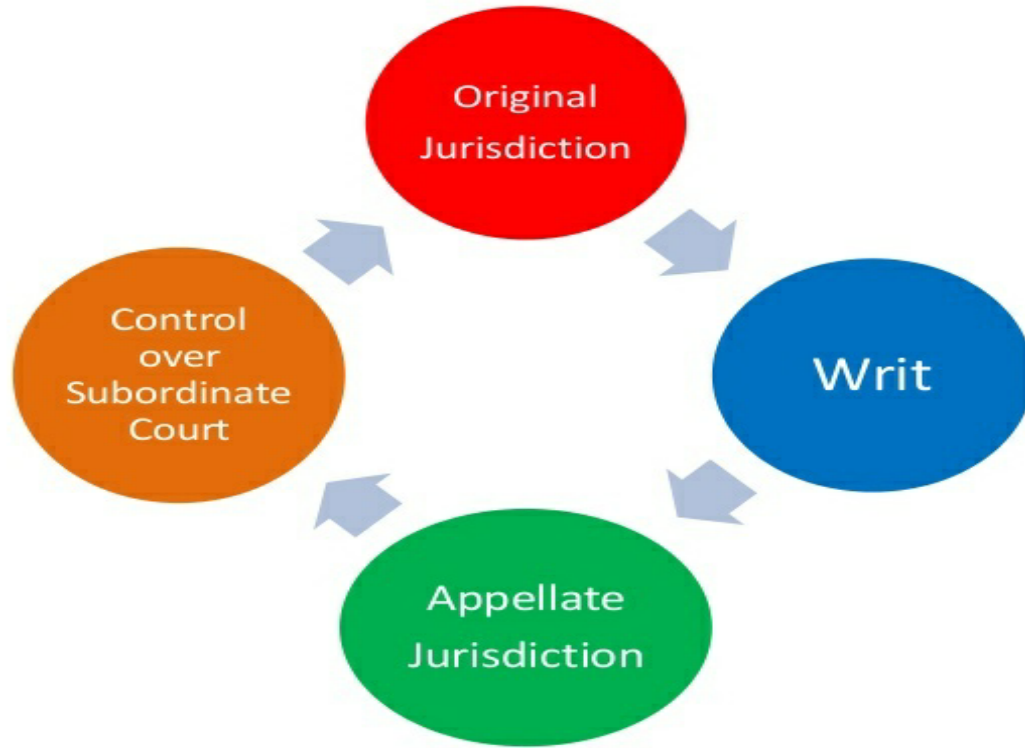

The High Court

Uppermost court in State

- ❖ Composition
- ❖ Appointment of :-
 - Additional Judge
 - Acting Judge
 - Transfer of Judges
 - Retired Judge
- ❖ Qualifications and Tenure of Judges

Jurisdiction of High Court

Independence of Judiciary

- ❖ The legislature and executive must not restrain the functioning of the judiciary
- ❖ The other organs of the government should not interfere with the decisions of the judiciary
- ❖ The judges must be able to perform their functions without fear or favour

Judicial Activism

- ❖ The active role of the judiciary in upholding the rights of citizens and preserving the constitutional and legal system of the country is known as judicial activism
- ❖ The concept of Public Interest Litigation (PIL) is always talked of when judicial activism is discussed.

THANK YOU!

Edit with WPS Office