Following this, the results are shared in a large classroom discussion. Alternatively, two pairs of students can pair up to compare and discuss answers. This process forces students to think individually, and then allows them to analyze and clarify their response collaboratively. Brain Storming: In this activity, students are asked to generate ideas on a certain topic, category or question while facilitator facilitate and record the answers on the board. Inquiry Based Learning: Inquiry-based learning uses different approaches to learning, including small-group discussion and guided learning. Instead of memorizing facts and material, students learn by doing. This allows them to build knowledge through exploration, experience, and discussion. Inductive and Deductive Learning: In Inductive type students proceed from particular to general statement (example to formula) and in Deductive type students proceed from general to particular. Students are given formula and they solve problems using them. Muddiest Point: Check comprehension and identify confusion, what was most confusing about the material? Brain Storming-The class would start with a discussion on what the students have already learnt in the previous classes and hence what is it that they would learn now. They would also be told the significance of the topic that they would be studying.
