

After A Bath... (Poem)

by: Aileen Fisher

After my bath
I try, try, try
To wipe myself
Till I 'm
dry, dry, dry.

STANZA-1 SUMMARY

In the first stanza, the child says that after his bath he keeps trying to wipe himself till he is dry.

Hands to wipe
and fingers and toes
And two wet legs
And a shiny nose

STANZA-2 SUMMARY

In the second stanza, he tells what parts of the body he has to dry. He says that he wipes his hands, fingers and toes. He also dries his two wet legs and his nose .

JUST THINK HOW MUCH LESS TIME I'D TAKE
IF WERE A DOG
AND COULD SHAKE, SHAKE, SHAKE.

STANZA- 3 SUMMARY

In the third stanza, the little child asks the reader to do some imagination. He says that what if he were a dog how much less time he would take to dry himself. he would just shake to make him dry.
