

LESSON PLAN (CONSOLIDATED)
SUBJECT: ENGLISH
GRADE: I

Chapter Number and Title of Chapter	Chapter: 8 The Tiger and the Mosquito
No. of Periods	3 periods (Duration : 40 min)
Learning Objectives	The students will be able to : ➤ Spell out difficult words with its meanings. ➤ Identify the difference between lion and a tiger. ➤ Develop listening, speaking ,reading and writing skills. ➤ Construct sentences from new words. ➤ Answer the questions based on the text. ➤ Read the chapter comprehensively.
Teaching Aids / Resources	Videos related to explanation of chapter and its experiential content. PPT displaying summary of the chapter. Concept Map
Previous Knowledge/ Curiosity Questions	The teacher will ask following questions before the start of the lesson: Q1. Who is the king of the jungle? Q2. Name the tall animal with a very long neck. Q3. Name the animal that can copy people’s speech. Q4. Name the animal with yellow and black lines on its body. Q5. How many legs does an insect have? Q6. What sound does a mosquito produce?
Announcement of topic	Dear students, Now we will read our chapter: “The Tiger and the Mosquito”
Teaching Methodology/ Strategy	Transaction would proceed in the following manner- Suggestive Methodologies: Brain Storming / Curiosity Questioning Active learning- Make different animals using clay. Group learning- Loud reading of the chapter highlighting difficult words. Questioning- Questions based on thinking skills. Guided practice followed by Independent Practice- NCERT questions to be discussed in the classroom.

Content Obligatory Vocabulary (Keywords)	New words: tiger, mosquito, afraid, buzzing, paw, flew, struck, scraped, bleed, cheek, quietly, helpless, proud, own, great, angry.
Learning Concepts/ Teaching Points	The summary will be explained after reading the chapter: This is a story of a tiger and a mosquito. Once the tiger was relaxing. A mosquito came buzzing near to him. The tiger became frustrated and said mosquito to go away. But mosquito kept buzzing around him and disturbed him. The tiger attacked the mosquito with his paw. But paw struck its own cheek. The same thing happened again. The tiger helplessly walked away. The mosquito gave a lesson to the tiger that one should never underestimate others, irrespective of their size or other qualities.
Hard Spots/ Focus Spots	Moral Value: ➤ One should never underestimate others irrespective of their size or other qualities. ➤ One should never be proud.. ➤ Everyone is unique.
Experiential Content	Moral story related to the theme : Everyone is unique will be shared. Then students will be motivated to share their unique qualities in the form of video . {singing, drawing, painting, dancing, gardening and so on}. Your talents are always welcomed and respected.
Subject Enrichment Activities for Internal Assessment	Q1. What is the hidden message reflected in the chapter? Q2. Write the meanings of difficult words: a. proud b. Angry c. Scraped d. struck
Recapitulation :	Q1. Who was dozing under a tree? Q2. Why did the tiger's cheek start to bleed? Q3. Why did the tiger walk away? Q4. Who said these words ' Don't be so proud ,my friend'. Q5. Who came buzzing by? Q6. What do we learn from the story?

Assignment:	Draw your favourite animal and write few lines on it.
--------------------	---