READING OF THE CHAPTER : THE TIGER AND THE MOSQUITO .

A tiger was dozing under a tree.
A mosquito came buzzing by.
The tiger said” Hey! Mosquito!
Go away!”

- ▶ The mosquito said, “Why should I go away? I am not afraid of you! The tiger was angry. He hit out with his paw. The mosquito flew off. The paw scraped his cheek. It began to bleed. The mosquito buzzed away. The tiger struck with his other paw. The mosquito flew off. This time, too, he hit himself. The tiger was helpless. The mosquito continued to buzz. The tiger got up and quietly walked away.

- ▶ The mosquito called out after him. ,”Don,t be so proud,my friend.Everyone is great in his own way!

Moral of the story:

We should never underestimate others,irrespective of their size or other qualities.

Summary :

- ▶ This is a story of tiger and a mosquito. Once the tiger was relaxing. A mosquito came buzzing near to him. The tiger became frustrated and said mosquito to go away. But mosquito kept buzzing around him and disturbed him. The tiger attacked the mosquito with his paw. But paw struck its own cheek.

- A tiger with orange and black stripes is lying down in a natural, grassy environment. The tiger is looking directly at the camera with a calm expression. The background is slightly blurred, showing more of the natural habitat.
- ▶ The same thing happened again. The tiger was helplessly walked away. The mosquito gave a lesson to the tiger that never to be proud because everyone has its own qualities.

THEME OF THE CHAPTER

- ▶ Everyone is unique .Never underestimate others irrespective of their size or other qualities.
- ▶ Pride has a fall.
