

RUN! (POEM)

CLASS IV , ENGLISH (MARIGOLD)

RUN!

Read and enjoy this poem

Run!

AWAY from the city
And into the sun,
Out to the country,
Run! Run! Run!

Run in the raindrops!
Run 'neath the trees!
Run little races
With each little breeze!

Run down the hillside,
Run up the lane;
Run through the meadow,
Then run back again!

Run and be merry
All through the day!
Run to the country,
Away! Away!

— Mary Daunt

New words

RUN !

AWAY From the city

And into the sun

Out to the country .

Run ! Run ! Run!

EXPLANATION -

As the title of the poem suggests ,
the poet is telling children
To run. She asks them to run away from the crowded cities , into the open country(villages), where they can see a clear sky and beautiful sun.

Run ! Run! Run!

Run in the raindrops !
Run 'neath the trees!
Run little races
With each little breeze!

Explanation- (stanza-2)

Here also, the poet asks the child to run Even when it is raining and enjoy the raindrops falling on him. She asks them to run in the shadow of the trees and to have competition of running with the blowing winds as it make them very happy and energetic.

RUN DOWN THE HILL SIDE ,
RUN UP THE LANE ; RUN THROUGH THE MEADOW,
THEN RUN BACK AGAIN!

EXPLANATION – (STANZA-3)

In this stanza ,she asks the children to enjoy the Thrill of running down a hill slope, running up lanes and through meadows which are fields crowded with different animals and then to run back to their homes.

Run and be merry

All through the day!

Run to the country,

Away! Away!

EXPLANATION- (STANZA -4)

In this stanza she summarizes that by running all around , they will be cheerful and happy through the day. By being happier the children will be more successful in life and here lies the importance of an active lifestyle for all of us.
