

Learning activity-

Students will be given names of five different birds and they will enact their sounds. They will gather information from the internet about the bird name given to them. This way they will learn the names, sound names and eating habits of the birds.

