

MERRY GO ROUND

Listen, sing and dance

I climbed up on the merry-go-round,
And it went round and round.

I rode on a big brown horse,
And it went up and down.

And it went round
And up and down
Around and round
And up and down.

I sat high up
On a big brown horse
And rode around
On the merry-go-round

And it went round
And it went round
And it went round
And it went round

On the merry-go-round
Around
And round
And Round...

Listen, sing and dance

I climbed up on the merry-go-round,
And it went round and round.

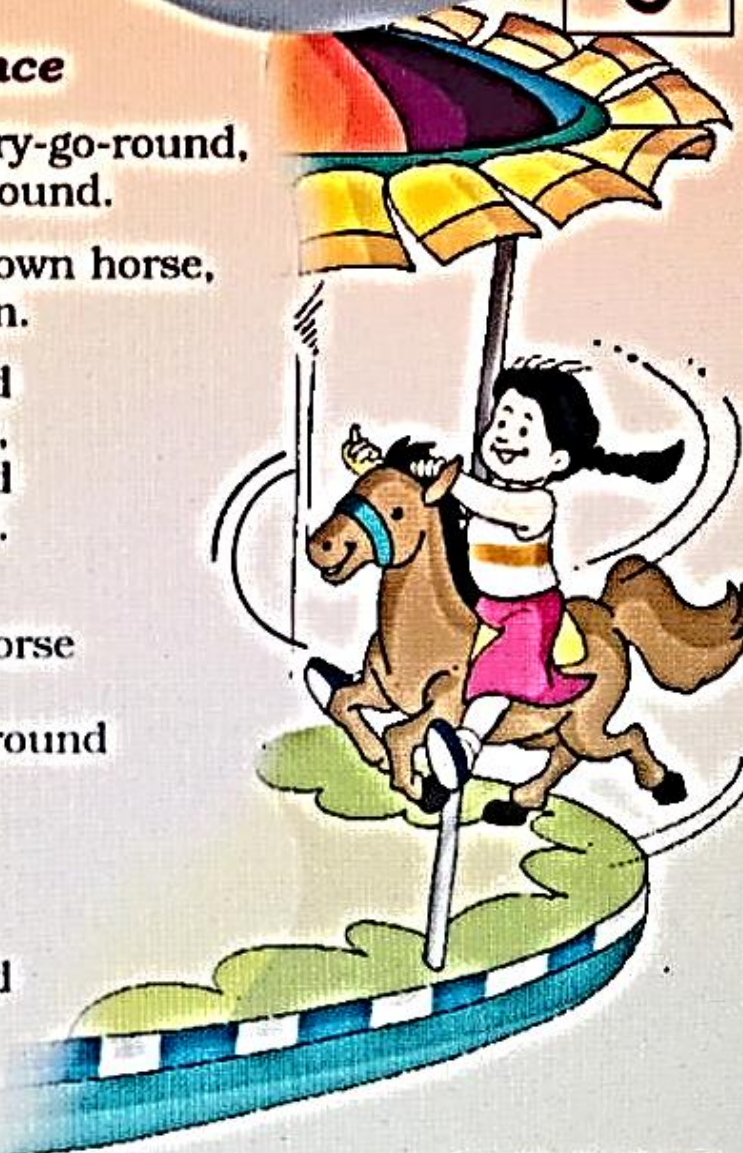

I climbed up on a big brown horse,
And it went up and down.

Around and round
And up and down,
Around and round
And up and down.

I sat high up
On a big brown horse
And rode around
On the merry-go-round
And rode around

On the merry-go-round
I rode around

On the merry-go-round
Around
And round
And Round...

Poem -Summary

- The poem, written by Dorothy W. Baruch, there are repetitions of many words- round, around, merry-go-round, brown horse, etc. Similar to most of the other poems, here too the narrator is a kid.
- Throughout the poem, the kid is describing the event of him/her taking a ride on a merry-go-round. The kid explains how the merry-go-round moved round and round, and how the brown-horse which he/she was riding went up and down. In these lines, we can sense the happiness the kid feels while riding the merry-go-round.
