

Learning activity-

Using different size of bangles, draw different shapes. With this activity, children learn different shapes and difference between the sizes. They will colour all the circular shapes.

