

Experiential Learning
Lesson: Sound of Music

|                      |                                |
|----------------------|--------------------------------|
| Activity Name        | Chat Show                      |
| Level                | IX                             |
| Skill                | Speaking                       |
| Time                 | 2 sessions of 40 mins          |
| Grouping of students | Group                          |
| Materials            | Pens and papers for each group |

Learning Outcome: Students will be able to:

- plan, organize and present ideas coherently by writing the script for the chat show.
- develop the art of interviewing and responding in a chat show.

Teacher's Activity- The teacher will:

- show students some chat show samples from the Internet.
- share the rubrics for the chat show.
- give the students the attached worksheet to complete and let them discuss it with a peer and get feedback.

Students' Activity- Students will:

- create their scripts
- decide and assign roles to each other.
- present their chat shows group wise.
- give feedback to their friends and allot marks out of five based on their performance in the chat show.
- prepare a timeline of Evelyn Glennie and Ustad Bismillah Khan

Stages:

- Setting up (giving instructions – guidelines, objectives, rules, time limit): 5 minutes
- Writing time: 20 minutes
- Presentation: 10 minutes

Extended Learning Activity:

Imagine you are the co-hosts of a popular chat show on national television for children called “What Teenagers Want!” You invite popular personalities from various fields such as music, dance, literature, theatre, science etc. For this chat show you and your producers have decided to invite Evelyn Glennie and Ustad Bismillah Khan. Prepare a script for your chat show. Assign two students to be the host and two who will play the role of the guests. Enjoy the chat show by asking fun-filled, interesting questions to your guests. Look up the attached guidelines to help you script your first chat show.

Extended Learning Worksheet

Task 1: Let's Chat!

1. Before you plan a chat show, it is important to do some pre-planning! By getting more specific, that is, thinking about what you are going to talk about, who your audience will be, who your guest will be and the topic of your show, will help you in planning a draft of your show.
2. You have to collaboratively reach a consensus as to who will host the show and who will be the guest speaker.
3. Collect as much information as possible on the topic.
4. Give your show a catchy and unique name.
5. Prepare a draft or a script of what you are going to talk about.
6. Make sure everyone gets to participate in the chat show.
7. Involve the audience too by having an open round at the end.
8. Keep it fun, lively and engaging.
9. Request your teacher/ a classmate to record and take pictures.
10. Invite your teacher to share feedback at the end of the show.

Task 2: Timeline

Prepare a timeline of Evelyn Glennie and Ustad Bismillah Khan by exploring the Internet. Include important events, awards and accolades of their lives.