

RUBRICS – GEOGRAPHY CHAPTER 2-LAND,SOIL WATER, NATURAL VEGETATION AND WILDLIFE

DEBATE :HUMAN ACTIVITIES ARE RESPONSIBLE OF DEGRADATION OF THE NATURAL RESOURCES

DESCRIPTORS	5	4	3	2	1
ACCURACY OF FACTS/CONTENT (2)	The student thoroughly researched and included all facts in their presentation.	The student was able to include most of facts in their presentation.	The student was able to include some facts in their presentation.	The student shows a very limited inclusion of facts in their presentation.	Student is unable to include valid facts in their presentation.
DELIVERY OF CONTENT/ROLE (2)	The student was able to deliver the content confidently looking at the audience, without looking into the paper.	The student was able to deliver the content confidently, however, sometimes looked into the paper.	The student was able to deliver the content confidently, however, most of the times looked into the paper.	The students delivered the dialogues by reading it out from the paper effectively.	The students were unable to deliver most of the dialogues.
USE OF CROSS EXAMINATION and REBUTTAL (1)	Identification of opposition's weakness and excellent cross	Identification of opposition's weakness and good cross	Decent cross examination and/or rebuttals but with some	Poor cross examination or rebuttals and failure to point out	Failure to defend itself against opposition attack.

	examination and defense.	examination and rebuttals with minor slip-ups.	significant problems.	problems in the opposition team.
--	-------------------------------------	---	----------------------------------	---	--