

ORGANISING CONCEPT

01 AS A STRUCTURE

The organizing function leads to the creation of an organizational structure which includes the designing of roles to be filled by suitably skilled people and defining the inter relationship between these roles so that ambiguity in performance of duties can be eliminated & extent of authority, as well as responsibility

Organizing is the process of identifying and grouping the work to be performed, defining and delegating responsibility and authority, and establishing relationships for the purpose of enabling people to work most effectively together in accomplishing objectives.

AS A PROCESS 02

Organising is the process of defining and grouping the activities of the enterprise and establishing authority relationships among them.

Theo Haimman