

BOOKS

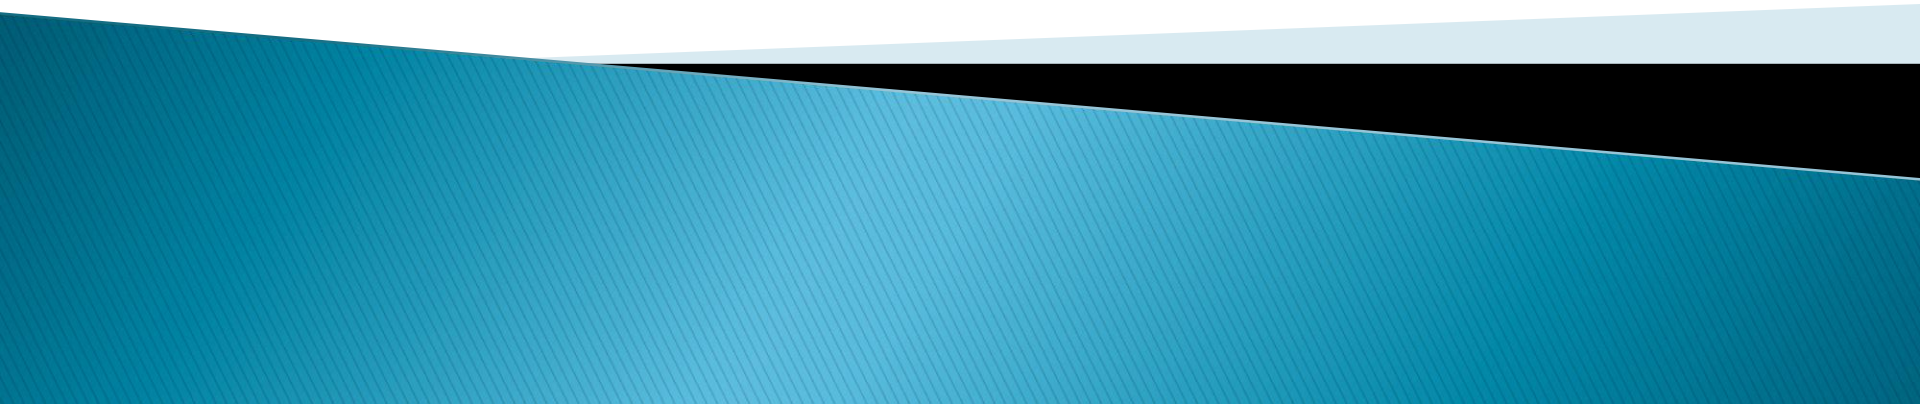

Explanation of Stanza 1

The poet is talking about the library door, who is calling the children. The poet opened the door and saw that books were all over the place.

Explanation of Stanza 2

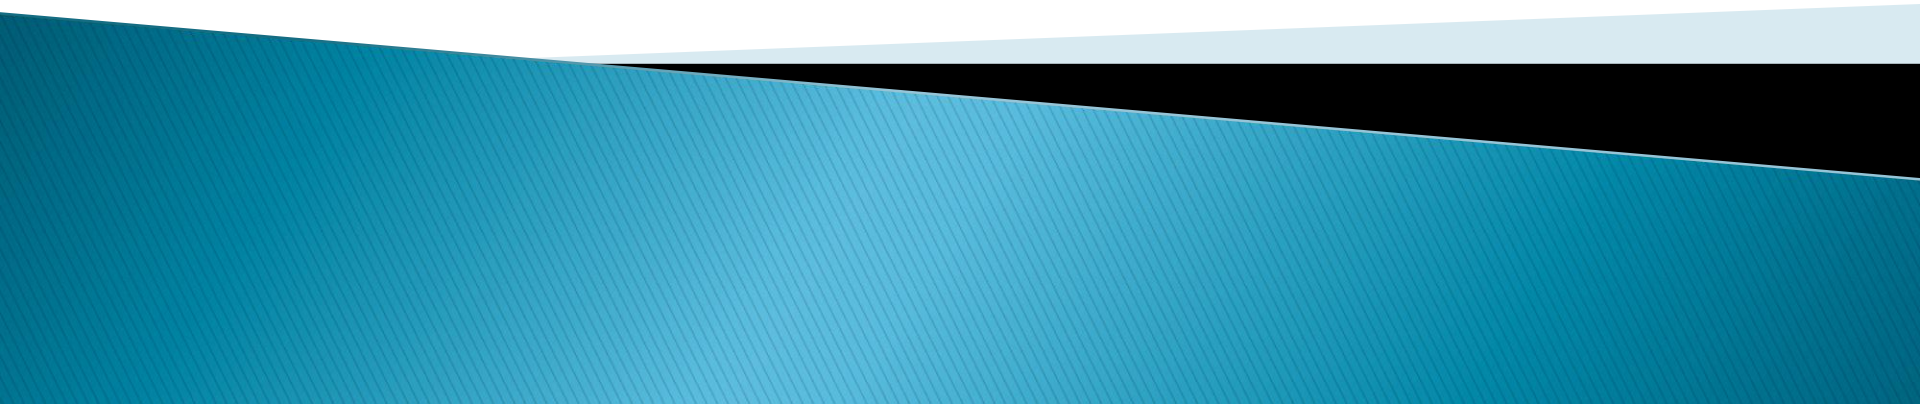

In this stanza the poet talks about the library which is full of books. Some books are tall and skinny and are kept on the top of the shelves. But some books are fat and are standing by themselves.

Explanation of Stanza 3

In this stanza, the poet picks up a book and starts reading. The book is full of pictures that depict a story. The poet really likes a book.

New / Difficult words

- ❑ Library: A Building Or Room Containing Collections Of Books
 - ❑ Wide: Of Great Or More Than Average Width.
 - ❑ Galore: In Great Quantity
 - ❑ Skinny: Thin
 - ❑ Wonderful: Inspiring Delight, Pleasure, Or Admiration;
-

Thank you

Made by: Arushi Singh