LITTLE TIGER, BIG TIGER

LOIS HAMILTON FULLER

SUMMARY

It is a story about a mother tiger and her kid little cub, who is little naughty. The mother tiger who is very protective and caring just like our mothers do. One day mother tiger was sleeping , so the little cub was pouncing over frog who was hoping here and there and little cub wanted to catch it but suddenly another tiger came and little cub got frightened and cried out and mother tiger roared loudly and that another tiger went away. After a year the little cub grew into big tiger just like his mother.
