

Don't tell

By: Irane Yates

Explanation of Poem

The boy is complaining that there are lot of things he wants to do, but people don't allow him to do because he is not big enough to do the things . So he would wait patiently and will show the people what he can do and if he would get the chance. But the boy is unhappy that only he knows that he is giant inside.

Frame sentences:

- i) Things: I went to market to buy the things.
- ii) Waiting: He is waiting for me.
- iii) Show: There is a magic show in our school.
- iv) Giant: Elephant is a giant animal.
